Beauty is always inside

CV was born in 1997. Since then, our love for aromatherapy, research and constant innovation in natural therapies have led us to the best natural beauty professionals working with our method in more than 20 countries.

Our aim is to turn our gaze towards nature and its infinite possibilities combined with science, free our formulas from parabens, silicones, and other petroleum derivatives, and manufacture natural and even certified organic cosmetics suitable for vegans with more sustainable packaging without renouncing luxury.

Our professional treatments offer a unique dual benefit. The essential oils we use not only promote mental well-being but also penetrate the body, providing a regenerating action. This comprehensive approach ensures the effectiveness of our treatments.

With our CV Cosmetica Vital line, you will obtain spectacular results.
